

A DAY OF HONEY - A DAY OF ONIONS: A Play - From Egypt to Israel - Illustrated

Did you know that the Biblical Exodus of the Jews from Egypt was not the only one? There was a Second Exodus of Jews from Egypt in the second half of the twentieth century. In this moving and compelling historical play, Ada Aharoni captures in marvelous detail the spirit, excitement and intrigue of mid-twentieth century Egypt and the creation of Israel. At the core of this stormy tale is Esther, the beautiful daughter of a rich judge, member of Cairo's intimate Jewish community. When the historical storm of dramatic events in the Middle East threatens to destroy her future and that of her lover, the Holocaust survivor Rafi, she sets out on her own in a passionate quest for creativity, love and fulfillment. This film script covers the dramatic events that led to the Second Exodus of the Jews from Egypt, which took place after the establishment of the State of Israel in 1948 until 1967. The events are delineated through one family, and the love story of Esther and Rafi. The play presents an exciting, moving and authentic panorama of those tumultuous times, crucial to the understanding of the Israeli Arab conflict today. THE SECOND EXODUS is also a play about PEACE that protests against war and violence in the Middle East. Judge Abramino, Esthers father, loses all his property but not his dignity, when he is exiled from Egypt together with his family. Regina, Esthers grandmother, refuses to be exiled and throws herself from her staircase with her elegant china, a family heirloom. Esther loses Rafi when he is caught in a pogrom in the streets of Cairo, and exiled. When she finally finds him in Jerusalem, after she thought she had lost him forever, the viewer realizes that they both together symbolize the renaissance of the Jewish people from the East and from the West, reunited in their long-lost land, Israel. This is an exciting and informative play for those who enjoy a good love story based on real historical events, and for those interested in the past and future of peace in the Middle East. It is a play that will be surely be made into a film soon. This play will captivate the hearts and minds of all its readers and audiences. It is a great contribution to the promotion of peace and reconciliation between Israelis and Palestinians, Highly recommended for all ages and for all our global village.
