

El Camino de Santiago (Spanish Edition)

Carpentier era conocido como uno de los primeros que introdujo el termino de lo real maravilloso y el neo-barroco en America Latina. Carpentier, ampliamente conocido por el estilo barroco de sus escritos y su teoria de lo real maravilloso, tuvo entre sus obras mas famosas 'Ecue-Yamba-O!', Alabado sea el Senor (1933) sobre el folclore y mitologia afrocubanos, El reino de este mundo (1949) y Los pasos perdidos (1953). En 'Ecue-Yamba-O!', tuvo una perspectiva mas hacia la etnologia. En esa obra, se presenta el tema de la cultura afro-cubana. Se critica la politica de la dependencia de Cuba bajo los Estados Unidos, y las fotos en el libro hacen que la obra se vea como antropologica y no pura ficcion. Hay algunas teorias que afirman que la coleccion de imagenes (no de humanos) reflejan la influencia surrealista en Carpentier asi como una vista de la cultura.
