

A Sentimental Journey Through France and Italy - The Original Classic Edition

Finally available, a high quality book of the original classic edition of A Sentimental Journey Through France and Italy. This is a new and freshly published edition of this culturally important work by Laurence Sterne, which is now, at last, again available to you. Enjoy this classic work today. These selected paragraphs distill the contents and give you a quick look inside A Sentimental Journey Through France and Italy: quoth I, debating the matter with myself, That one and twenty miles sailing, for tis absolutely no further from Dover to Calais, should give a man these rights: - Ill look into them: so, giving up the argument, - I went straight to my lodgings, put up half a dozen shirts and a black pair of silk breeches - the coat I have on, said I, looking at the sleeve, will do; - took a place in the Dover stage; and the packet sailing at nine the next morning, - by three I had got sat down to my dinner upon a fricaseed chicken, so incontestably in France, that had I died that night of an indigestion, the whole world could not have suspended the effects of the droits daubaine; - my shirts, and black pair of silk breeches - portmanteau and all, must have gone to the King of France; - even the little picture which I have so long worn, and so often have told thee, Eliza, I would carry with me into my grave, would have been torn from my neck! - Ungenerous! ... Now there being no travelling through France and Italy without a chaise, - and nature generally prompting us to the thing we are fittest for, I walkd out into the coach-yard to buy or hire something of that kind to my purpose: an old desobligeant in the furthest corner of the court, hit my fancy at first sight, so I instantly got into it, and finding it in tolerable harmony with my feelings,
