

Hustle Hard

Kourtney has hustled hard since she was nineteen years old. She grew up fast, putting her goals on hold since she had to resort to stripping to help her mother with her sick fathers medical bills. Shes always felt like shes the one whos holding her family together. Now, three years later, tragedy repeatedly strikes and Kourtneys world is turned upside down. Every time she deals with one issue, another problem seems to arise. From dealing with the drama at the strip club to accepting her boyfriend being laid off at work, she cant seem to catch a break. Even her younger sister has gone missing. Can she manage to overcome all the stress, heartache and drama that seem to keep finding her?
