

Alexandre Chenevert

Dans le Montreal de lapres-guerre, un petit homme semblable a des milliers dautres, qui exerce le metier de caissier dans une banque, porte sur ses epaules le sort de lhumanite entiere. Linsomnie, la culpabilite et le desir de repandre la justice et la concorde sur la terre ne cessent de le tourmenter. Un moment, il connait le repos au bord dun lac sauvage, seul et livre aux grandes forces de la nature. Tableau de la societe contemporaine bruissant de messages de toutes sortes, portrait de lindividu moderne accable de responsabilites et en quete dune paix qui le fuit toujours, Alexandre Chenevert est peut-etre, de tous les romans de Gabrielle Roy, le plus grave et le plus ironique, celui qui correspond le plus justement a ce que le monde ou nous vivons a fait de nos vies, de nos pensees, de notre desir de bonheur. Ce roman, le troisieme de Gabrielle Roy, a ete publie pour la premiere fois a Montreal et a Paris en 1954, puis en traduction a New York et a Toronto en 1955, enfin a Londres et a Munich en 1956. Cette nouvelle edition presente le texte definitif dAlexandre Chenevert, revu et corrige, suivi dune chronologie et dune breve notice.
