

Aunt Dimity and the Lost Prince

The eighteenth title in Nancy Athertons widely acclaimed Aunt Dimity crime series. For readers of Ann Granger and M. C. Beaton. In the sleepy Cotswold village of Finch, Lori Shepherd has two restless seven-year-old boys on her hands. When a friend suggests an outing to Skeaping Manor - a bizarre Jacobean house-turned-museum - she leaps at the idea. There they meet Daisy Pickering, a sweet nine year old in a shabby pink parka who regales them with tales of Russian aristocrats. When a fine silver figurine turns up in the pocket of a similar pink parka at Loris local thrift shop, she recognizes it instantly as the object that mesmerized young Daisy. But when she tries to track down Daisys mother, she finds they have disappeared without a trace. Stranger still, it seems one of Daisys imagined Russian princes may be very real - and in desperate need of help. With her Aunt Dimitys otherworldly guidance, Lori begins to unravel a tangled web of secrets stretching from Englands finest country estates back to the blood-drenched soil of the Russian Revolution...
