

Tsugumi (Spanish Edition)

Maria Shirakawa, la narradora de esta delicada historia, tiene que marcharse a Tokio a estudiar en la universidad. Deja atrás la pensión Yamamoto, un lugar idílico junto al mar en la península de Izu, donde ha crecido al lado de su madre. Y también a su amiga de la infancia, Tsugumi, la hija bellísima del matrimonio que regenta la pensión. Aunque los caracteres de Maria y Tsugumi son muy distintos, la dulce y pacífica Maria sabe que, tras la aparente afabilidad de Tsugumi con los extraños, su amiga es en la intimidad arisca y caprichosa, a veces incluso cruel y despotica con quienes la rodean, porque sufre por una dolorosa enfermedad crónica que la tiene sujeta a la península y a la pensión, y que tal vez sea la causa de su carácter. La amistad entre ambas ha superado ya muchas pruebas cuando Tsugumi invita a Maria a pasar un último verano junto al mar. Durante esas vacaciones, mientras ciertos incidentes amenazan con trastocar la vida de la pensión, Tsugumi encontrará el amor y Maria aprenderá el verdadero significado del hogar y la familia.
