

Lisbon - a Choose a Way interactive travel guide

Would you rather explore an 11th century castle, see how the rich once traveled, or take in Lisbons trendiest neighborhoods? Just like the old-school choose-your-own-adventure books, your choices are up to you. --UPDATED March 2016-- Choose a Way books are interactive travel guides to cities around the world. Instead of being told where to go or reading through a huge guidebook just to plan a few days, choose between three places. Tap, enjoy, then choose from three more places. Use it on your phone or your tablet to travel on-the-fly, or sit down with it on your laptop and plan out your trip that way. Your call. Just one of over a thousand ways a day in Lisbon can play:

9am: Learn all about the Portuguese styles of tiles at the National Tile Museum
Noon: A 250-year-old organ, anyone? Meander through Sao Vicente de Fora Church to enjoy the facades and cloisters
2:30pm: Head to the Lisbon Museum, set in an 18th century palace, and get to know the citys history both pre- and post-earthquake
5:00pm: Food and gourmet offerings, anyone? Head to the Campo de Ourique Market to try or buy
8:00pm: Cap off the night with Lisbons oldest jazz club, the Hot Club Portugal

Each place features the street address, exact GPS coordinates, What3Words, a link to the place on Google Maps, and concise directions from a major landmark or transport station.
