

Jezebels Apple

Nineteen-year-old, Beatrice Bencardi, daughter of a prominent Bahamian preacher, is a modern-day Jezebel who is as manipulative as the ancient queen herself. She will use every trick in the book to get anything she wants. A betrayal spawned by her doings makes her boyfriend, and the father of her two-year-old baby attempt to kill her. Fighting to save her life, she storms into the police station and falls at the feet of the devilishly handsome Police Constable, Darville Cobbs. Through her manipulation, he eventually becomes emotionally entangled with her. Beatrice's sister, Oznee Bencardi, is a third-year medical student at the University of South Louisiana. She is loyal and well respected by her family. Oznee professes to be a Christian, however, Beatrice makes it impossible for her sister to live her conviction in peace. Beatrice is jealous of her sister's success and tries everything to debase her. So, imagine when Police Constable Darville Cobbs begins to show interest in Oznee. It sparks forty-five days of pure hell, because Beatrice is determined to make anyone suffer who gets in her way.
