

Echo Park (Harry Bosch 12)

1993 : la jeune Marie Gesto disparaît à la sortie d'un supermarché d'Hollywood. Confiée à l'inspecteur Bosch, l'affaire n'est pas résolue, la victime n'étant jamais retrouvée. Hanté par cet échec, Bosch rouvre sans succès le dossier année après année. Jusqu'en 2006, où le district attorney l'informe qu'un suspect accuse de deux meurtres, dont celui de Marie Gesto, est prêt à passer aux aveux en échange d'un plaider coupable qui lui évitera la mort. Chargé de vérifier que cet individu ne blâme pas la justice, Bosch est très éprouvé par ce qu'il apprend. Encore plus destabilisant pour lui, en épluchant le dossier établi en 93, le district attorney a découvert une erreur capitale dans l'enquête, erreur qui aurait permis au suspect de continuer à tuer treize ans durant. C'est alors tout un pan du passé de l'inspecteur de Bosch qui se fissure.
