

EDGAR WALLACES COLLECTED WORKS

EDGAR WALLACES COLLECTED WORKS contained 11 works written by Richard Horatio Edgar Wallace (1 April 1875 – 10 February 1932) was an English writer. Born into poverty as an illegitimate London child, Wallace left school at 12. He joined the army at 21 and was a war correspondent during the Second Boer War for Reuters and the Daily Mail. Struggling with debt, he left South Africa, returned to London and began writing thrillers to raise income, publishing books including The Four Just Men (1905). Drawing on time as a reporter in the Congo, covering the Belgian atrocities, Wallace serialised short stories in magazines, later publishing collections such as Sanders of the River (1911). He signed with Hodder and Stoughton in 1921 and became an internationally recognised author. After a disastrous bid to stand as Liberal MP for Blackpool in the 1931 general election, Wallace moved to Hollywood, where he worked as a script writer for RKO studios. He died suddenly from undiagnosed diabetes, during the initial drafting of King Kong (1933). A prolific writer, one of Wallaces publishers claimed that a quarter of all books then read in England were written by him. As well as journalism, Wallace wrote screen plays, poetry, historical non-fiction, 18 stage plays, 957 short stories and over 170 novels, 12 in 1929 alone. More than 160 films have been made of Wallaces work. He is remembered for the creation of King Kong, as a writer of the colonial imagination, for the J. G. Reeder detective stories, and the Green Archer. He sold over 50 million copies of his combined works in various editions and The Economist describes him as one of the most prolific thriller writers of [the 20th] century, although few of his books are still in print in the UK. These are the 11 works of Edgar Wallace in this book: 1. SANDERS OF THE RIVER (1911) 2. BONES BEING FURTHER AD(1915) 3.

THE SECRET HOUSE (1917) 4. THE MAN WHO KNEW (1918) 5. THE CLUE OF THE TWISTED CANDLE (1918) 6. TAM O THE SCOOTS (1918) 7. THE GREEN RUST (1919) 8. THE DAFFODIL MYSTERY (1920) 9. BONES IN LONDON (1921) 10. THE BOOK OF ALL-POWER (1921) 11. The Angel of Terror (1922)
