

The Nonentity (Annotated)

A featuring romance novel by the renowned author Ethel M. Dell, full of suspense and romantic mysteries,drama, thriller and much more. From a comfortable middle-class background, Dell had begun to write stories while she was still a child, even having some success in getting them published in popular magazines. She was educated at Streatham College for Girls in London. Her first novel, The Way of An Eagle took several years to produce and was rejected by a number of publishers until finally being accepted in 1911. By 1915, the book had gone through twenty-seven printings and was a best-selling commercial success. She would go on to write over 30 novels and numerous short stories which made her one of the most successful woman writers of the early 20th century.
