

Fantastic Tales: Visionary and Everyday

With this posthumously published anthology--a successor to his bestselling Italian Folktales--Italo Calvino, a contemporary surveyor of the otherworldly, pays homage to twenty-six of his nineteenth-century precursors. The resulting volume is both an education in the history of fantastic literature and a rollercoaster ride of wonder and terror, vampires, ghosts, and the rebellious creatures of our own psyches. Selections include: E.T.A. Hoffmann--The Sandman; Gerard de Nerval--the Enchanted Hand; Nikolai Gogol--The Nose; Edgar Allan Poe--The Tell-Tale Heart; Hans Christian Andersen--The Shadow; Ambrose Bierce--Chickamauga; Robert Louis Stevenson--The Bottle Imp; Henry James--The Friends of the Friends; H.G. Wells--The Country of the Blind. Comprising stories of the supernatural and narratives of the everyday uncanny, Fantastic Tales is a gallery of enchantments, deliciously entertaining yet more disturbing than our most persistent nightmares.
