

Finding June (The June Series Book 1)

Standing up for what you believe in is hard for any teenager in the battleground known as high school. Its even harder in the world of Hollywood, which is where sixteen-year-old June Laurie dreams of being. Thanks to the constant training from her agent/grandmother and the support of her best friend Joseph, June is positive shes ready. But is an innocent little Mormon girl like June ever really ready to be cast as the love interest for the countrys hottest star, Lukas Leighton? When June lands a role in Hollywoods most popular crime drama, Forensic Faculty, she finds herself caught off-guard by the fast-paced world of tabloids and paparazzi, and swept off her feet by her gorgeous co-star. Now June must decide what shes willing to give up to achieve the title of Hollywood starlet?or more importantly, whats too sacred to lose.
