

Vancouver & Rockies (Footprint Focus)

Take a morning stroll around Vancouver's Stanley Park and you will feel like you are in an evergreen forest, where intricately carved totem poles stand beneath giant Douglas-fir trees. If its raining head for the Aquarium to catch a glimpse of the famous Beluga whales; if its sunny make for the Chinatown the third largest in North America to experience the melting pot that is Vancouver first hand. The Canadian Rockies are Canadas premier attraction and a must-see destination. Here you can go trekking for days enjoying beautiful mountain scenery, or stay at a luxury lodge surrounded by thick virgin-green forest. From Vancouver's chilled-out beaches to the awesome Canadian Rockies, this Footprintfocus guide will help you get the best out of your trip. Essentials section with practical advice on getting around. Highlights map of key regions so you know what not to miss. Comprehensive listings including where to eat & sleep, plus where to go canoeing, climbing and skiing. Detailed street maps for Vancouver, Calgary and other important towns.
