

Four Restoration Marriage Plays: The Soldiers Fortune; The Princess of Cleves; Amphitryon; or The Two Sosias; The Wives Excuse; or Cuckolds Make Themselves (Oxford Drama Library)

Marriage and its discontents lie at the heart of Restoration comedy. In all four of the great plays collected here, a married woman confronts her would-be seducer. Each dramatist, however, reinterprets this situation in a novel way. Rich, inventive, and diverse, the plays demonstrate the vigor with which the institution of marriage was treated in the post-1660 playhouse.
