

Four in The Moment

Hes a kingpin who lives for the Moment. Shes an aspiring model who becomes the Moment. Hes an ex-con with dreams of becoming a photographer, to capture the Moment. Shes a bitter ex-lover who lost her Moment. What is the common denominator? They are merely participants of a love rhombus. When Quail returns home from prison and tries to stay legit, he is offered an opportunity by his once protege in the game. Kalanji sets his old mentor up with everything he needs to chase his dream of becoming a successful photographer. Their paths never conflict until Meda enters their lives. She too is chasing a dream, and stuck in a dilemma of which man can get her there the quickest. Gemina on the other hand, is not one to simply stand in the background, and will do whatever it takes to win the father of her child back. Witness 4 souls, caught up in the moment.
