

Roads of the Ranch: Exclusive San Diego County enclave, Rancho Santa Fe, makes a perfect day trip (A Joyride Guru Journey Book 9)

Take a drive through the exclusive San Diego County community of Rancho Santa Fe. Wooded, gently curving streets, beautiful estates surround a quaint village with shops and restaurants. Planned from the start to be an idealized Old Spanish California town, the Ranch has cool ties to old Hollywood days of Bing Crosby, Douglas Fairbanks Jr., and Victor Mature. On your San Diego day trip, grab glimpses of the one percent at the end of long driveways, along with groves of eucalyptus and citrus, plus paddocks for the horses. Roads are easy to maneuver; the village offers restaurants and a few shops, plus banks and real-estate offices in case you want to purchase one of the eight-figure estates. Its a quick drive from anywhere in San Diego County by car, plus its reachable through Amtrak and public transit for those without cars. Since 2000, San Diego native Jack Brandais has been taking readers of the San Diego Union-Tribune on back-country day trips around Southern California. One of the Joyride Guru journeys, author Jack Brandais is a San Diego native.
