

Toronto - Old Town et Distillery District (French Edition)

Ce chapitre numérique consacre au quartier de Old Town Toronto et Distillery District est extrait du guide Ulysse sur Toronto. Il visite la vieille partie de la ville, l'Old Town Toronto, et un secteur revampe, le Distillery District. Au départ, il ne faut pas manquer la fresque en trompe-l'œil intitulée Flatiron Mural, peinte à l'arrière du Gooderham Building. Non loin se trouve le Sony Centre for the Performing Arts, la plus grande salle de spectacle au Canada. Puis il y a le St. Lawrence Market, réputé pour la fraîcheur de ses produits. Et voici le Distillery District, qui cache derrière ses façades de briques rouges l'un des complexes industriels de style victorien les mieux préservés en Amérique du Nord. Enfin, l'Enoch Turner Schoolhouse est la plus ancienne école de la ville, et la St. James Cathedral s'impose comme la première cathédrale anglicane de Toronto, sans oublier Le Meridien King Edward, qui attire une clientèle huppée.
