

Leisure Travel in Vancouver (Chinese Edition)

Vancouver is a great place for people who love nature. It is famous for its mild climate, beautiful environment, many natural parks dotted around the city or scattered in the countryside that do not require long distances travel to reach, and four distinct seasons, each with different things to enjoy. Spring colour is intoxicating, summer flowers are eye catching, fall colour is brilliant, even winter snow is pleasant. Therefore, people living in Vancouver can enjoy the scenery year round at leisure. This book is a summary of the authors years of experience of touring Vancouver. It is also a travel guide to help more people to appreciate the beauty of Vancouver.
