

Moon Handbooks Kauai

Since its creation in 1973, the award-winning Moon Handbooks series has become a top choice among travelers who want a unique experience, a new perspective - and a few new stories to tell. Want to know about your destinations history, culture, and social issues? Looking for the lowdown on recreational opportunities, dining and accommodations options, and the most interesting regional sights and entertainment? No problem. Big or small, mainstream or obscure, every worthwhile detail is included in these books. Moon Handbooks: Kauai contains all the information a traveller needs, including: Opinionated reviews of a wide variety of accommodations and dining options, from B&Bs to luxury resorts and from beachside snack shacks to luau; An in-depth look at the islands culture and history, along with Hawaiian-language and pidgin phrase guides; Information on outdoors activities, such as surfing the waves of Hanalei Bay, hiking the Kalalau Trail, and deepsea fishing around Niihau; Details on interisland transportation and easy-to-use maps
