

Chasing the Night (Eve Duncan Book 11)

A CIA agents two-year-old child was stolen in the night as a brutal act of vengeance. Now, eight years later, this torment is something Catherine Ling awakens to every day. Her friends, family, and colleagues tell her to let go, move on, accept that her son is never coming back. But she cant. Catherine needs to find someone as driven and obsessed as she is to help her and that person is Eve Duncan. She knows that Eve shares her nightmare, since closure is also something that eludes Eve after the disappearance of her daughter Bonnie. Now, Eve must take her talents as a forensic sculptor to another level, using age progression as a way to unite Catherine with her child. As Eve gets drawn deeper into Catherines horror, she must face looming demons of her own. Bonnies killer is still out there. And a new killer is taunting Eve and Catherine at every turn. Is Catherines son alive, or not? These two women endure the worst fear any mother can imagine in Iris Johansens latest thrill ride, a gut-wrenching journey into the darkest places of the soul.
