

Michael OHolloran

The appeal of Michael OHalloran, as of all Mrs. Porters novels, is on the PLUS side of life, because it is a story of men and women who do credit to human nature and who display in their actions some of the beauty and strength that are to be achieved in everyday life, instead of weakness and misery. What the Press Says: If you are down on your luck and everything is going straight to the bow-wows, read the story of Mickey and be brought right about face, so that you can make a fresh start. Cleveland Leader. There are books that captivate old and young alike, and Michael OHalloran is one of them. It is a hard-hearted reader indeed who will not experience a liking for Irish Mickey, the incarnation of cheer and pluck. Milwaukee Free Press.
