

Edinburgh Castle and the Royal Mile: A Fully Illustrated In-Depth Guide to the Old Towns Ancient Thoroughfare

From Edinburgh Castle to Holyrood Palace, this fully-illustrated guidebook tells the story of Edinburghs Old Town and the intriguing cast of characters associated with it. Take it with you as you explore the Royal Mile. Fascinating facts include: * Where 300 people were burned for practising witchcraft * The location of the most haunted Close in Edinburgh * Where you can see poet Robert Burns love letter * The spot where Scotlands last public hanging took place * Where the worlds first encyclopedia was published. Other places of interest you can read about in the book (and add to your itinerary) include: 1. Holyrood Park (a 650-acre highland-like landscape with three lochs and a 820-foot summit). 2. Greyfriars Bobby (his story and the location of his statue). Calton Hill (location of the National Monument and the Nelson Monument). Illustrated with 90 of the authors own photographs.
