

One Week in Lisbon

Lisbon is one of the oldest city of Europe, This stunning capital city of Portugal is perfect blend of medieval and the modern times, As a holiday destination, Lisbon offers a rich and varied history, soulful Fado, lively nightlife and is blessed with a glorious year round climate. Apart from the glorious history of great explorers and architect this city also provides custard tarts and a famous fish stew on the table, it is love at first bite in this enchanting city. Through this memoir I share my Lisbon trip experience and research work, I fell in love with Lisbon the first moment I looked out of the Tram 28 window with the Electrico running up and down on narrow cobble streets at the edge of the Atlantic Ocean. This memoir also briefs about most important landmark and tourist destinations which shouldnt be misses when in Lisbon.
