

Oedipus: King Oedipus, Oedipus at Colonus, Antigone with Electra, The Iliad, The Odyssey, and The Republic

Oedipus was a mythical Greek king of Thebes. He is a tragic hero in Greek mythology; Oedipus accidentally fulfills a fateful prophecy, despite his efforts not to and brings disaster to his city and family. The story of Oedipus is the subject of Sophocles' tragedy Oedipus the King, which was followed by Oedipus at Colonus and then Antigone. These plays together make up the three Theban plays. This collection also contains the four other surviving plays by Sophocles: Electra, Aias (Ajax), Philoctetes, and The Trachinian Maidens (The Women of Trachis). Homers Epics The Iliad and The Odyssey - and Platos The Republic have furthermore been included for a full introduction to classic Greek literature. All works have been formatted and otherwise optimized for the Kindle.
