

My Heart Lies South: The Story of My Mexican Wedding

What happens when a thoroughly twentieth-century American lady journalist becomes a Mexican senora in nineteen-thirties provincial Monterrey? She finds herself-sometimes hilariously-coping with servants, daily food allowances, bargaining, and dramatic Latin emotions. In this vivid autobiography, Newbery Award winning author Elizabeth Borton de Trevino brings to life her experiences with the culture and the faith of a civilization so close to the United States, but rarely appreciated or understood. This special young peoples edition presents the humor and the insights of a remarkable woman and her contact with an era which is now past, but not to be forgotten.
