

Silver Springs Settlers: Books 1-3 (Volume 9)

Set in the 1800s, these three novels feature unique events from American history. In Building Fences, Mending Hearts, a young widow travels the Oregon Trail to claim land under President Lincoln's Homestead Act. Amidst tragedy and trial, Emma draws on an inner strength she doesn't know she possesses and renews her faith along the way. But will she be able to come to terms with the death of her husband and embrace a new love in this rough land? Climb aboard the transcontinental railroad in The Right Choice, book 2. During a heart-wrenching orphan placing journey, a rugged cowboy intervenes on behalf of three young brothers and forces their attractive caregiver to reexamine her convictions. His good deed done, Conner never expects to see any of them again. However, the best laid plans don't always go as we think and the brief encounter is destined to change his life. In Mail Order Bride, Sarah is confident she's following God's plan when she heads west to marry a stranger. How could she know that the dangerous journey to marry one man would land her square in the path of another? Veteran Confederate soldier, Tom Cooper, is anxious to get back to Montana before winter sets in, but his plans take a detour when he encounters an overturned stagecoach. Can he offer his assistance without losing his heart, or his life? For more detailed summaries, please look for the individual titles. All three books are available in e-format, as well as regular and large print paperback.
