

Agamemnon

A classic Greek play by Aeschylus it was written in 458 BC. The Play Agamemnon tells the story of the the homecoming of Agamemnon, King of Argos, from the Trojan War. Waiting at home for him is his wife, Clytemnestra, who has been planning his murder as revenge for the sacrifice of their daughter, Iphigenia. Furthermore, in the ten years of Agamemnons absence, Clytemnestra has entered into an adulterous relationship with Aegisthus, Agamemnons cousin and the scion of a dispossessed branch of the family, who is determined to regain the throne he believes should rightfully belong to him.
