

The Diamond Bearers Destiny (The Unaltered Book 4)

The Diamond Bearers Destiny, book four of The Unaltered. Calli learns about Chriss motives and tries to understand his dilemmas. Given no choice, the two of them travel with a mysterious companion back to General Hardings facility in an effort to dismantle the programs that are exterminating people with powers and wiping Diamond Bearers from the face of the earth. General Harding figures out what lies at the heart of Agent Alphas research project. Harding is determined to complete the studies and become an all-powerful Diamond Bearer--once Chris deceives Calli and delivers her to him so he can destroy her and take the diamond from her heart. What General Harding fails to understand is this: Callis diamond will not make him the most powerful individual on the face of the earth. Most powerful of all are the agents of nature who work for Crimson--the creator of the Sanguine Diamond. Upsetting the balance of nature is the last thing General Harding should do.
