

Toronto Unanchor Travel Guide - A Multicultural Retreat (3-day itinerary)

Toronto: A Multicultural Retreat (3-day itinerary) Toronto is known as one of the most multicultural cities in the world. The theme that weaves this itinerary together is the city's rich composite of flavors and landscapes, diverse neighborhoods, cultures, and delicious food from the world over. This 3-day itinerary ties together the best attractions and several different ways to get to know the city. Why you should buy this itinerary: - This is a thoroughly illustrated introduction to Toronto that combines the best of the tourist attractions with hidden gems and favorites from the perspective of a local. - It contains detailed instructions and maps for the most efficient and scenic routes to take from point A to point B. - It provides practical and candid advice on getting around in the city and value for your money. - It contains enough side recommendations for you to keep busy if you're staying for a fourth day! This itinerary is best for: - Low- and mid-budget travellers - People who enjoy being outdoors - People who would agree that walking, hiking, biking, and taking public transportation are the best ways to explore a city - People who enjoy food from all over the world - The first- and second-time visitor to Toronto - The spring, summer, and fall seasons Sights and places you'll see with this itinerary: - St. Lawrence Market - CN Tower - Steam Whistle Brewing - Harbourfront Centre - Toronto Islands - Distillery District - Yonge-Dundas Square - Little Italy - Koreatown - Kensington Market - Chinatown - Yorkville - Entertainment District - The Beaches - Cabbagetown - Evergreen Brick Works - ...and more Aside from the destinations listed above the itinerary also provides an alternative for Day 3, and suggestions for nighttime entertainment. Itinerary Table of Contents: - About This Guide - Getting Downtown Upon Your Arrival - Getting Around With Public Transportation - Day 1 - Day 2 -

Day 3 - About the Author (with contact information) - Appendix: An Alternative for Day 3
