

THE LAST GOODBYE

The Last Goodbye is a poignant vignette that opens the door into the grief-stricken world of two parents who have lost a child and gives the reader a glimpse of the disparate ways they each plan to deal with the loss. Loaded with symbolism, this short work will surely make a lasting impression and may just bring you back for a second or third read to catch what you missed the first time. The Last Goodbye is a short story of approximately 2000 words.
