

The Black Madonna (Roundheads & Cavaliers Book 1)

By July 1639, England has become a simmering cauldron of discontent. Less concerned by this than by his ailing finances, King Charles seeks ways of filling his empty treasury. Enter Luciano Falcieri de Santi - master-goldsmith and money-lender; a man known to London as The Italian and possessed of a hidden agenda. From his seat in the Commons, Richard Maxwell watches the inexorable approach of Civil War. His eldest son, Eden, struggles to save his marriage to Royalist-bred Celia whilst taking up his sword from the Parliament; and daughter, Kate, vows to hold their home against both Cavalier and Roundhead should the need arise. A spirited redhead, Kate Maxwell takes most things in her stride. The only thing she finds impossible to handle is her involuntary and growing attraction to irresistibly magnetic and diabolically beautiful Luciano del Santi. The paths of Richard Maxwell and the Italian cross by chance one dark night and a friendship is born. But while, on the surface, Luciano merely operates his businesses from Cheapside, he actually has a much darker purpose. Pursuing this, with the country becoming a battlefield, is difficult; but the war is not Luciano's only problem. Soon he begins to realise that unless he is extremely lucky, his quest may cost him his life. His own safety and that of everyone he cares about rests on success. Only success will permit him to reclaim the Black Madonna and allow him to offer his heart to the girl he loves. From the machinations within Parliament to the last days of the King's cause, The Black Madonna is an epic saga of passion and intrigue at a time when England was lost in a dark and bloody conflict.
