

Zero Tolerance (French Edition)

Le langage est direct et précis. L'écriture est rapide, brève, serrée, ne retenant que l'essentiel. Se pliant toujours au rythme du drame. Avec sous-jacente une poésie tenace, parfois pesante et amère. Le drame se construit et éclat en éclat. Impitoyable. Jouant sur des non-dits. Allant de culbutes en culbutes. Culminant dans des silences lourds et quasi-hermétiques. Ainsi le texte se lit comme un roman. Un roman fantastique et imprègne chaque démarche. On hésite. On doute. On croit à l'orchestration d'une imagination en délire ou plutôt à un cauchemar aveugle et persistant ou le fantastique cotoie le macabre... Pourtant il ne s'agit ni d'un conte, ni d'un roman. La part de fiction est mince pour ne point dire inexistante. Car, si étonnant que cela puisse paraître, il s'agit d'un témoignage, d'une histoire vécue. Percu par certains comme un simple fait divers, ou plutôt un de ces événements dont les journaux ne parlent pas et qu'on a cessé de voir à force de les voir...
