

A GIFT FROM HOME (Irish Western Series Book 4)

For Readers who have read the first three books in the series, this is John Reillys story! John Reilly is expecting a package from home, something light as a feather and twice as sweet. Little does he realize the package isnt the baked goods hes been dreaming of but a grown-up version of the thirteen-year-old girl who used to follow him everywhere. When John Reilly doesnt return to County Cork, Ireland, Jessi Fahy boards a ship and tracks him down. She arrives in Emerson, Colorado, hot, tired, and dusty, but he doesnt recognize her. Five and a half years of waiting in vain, combined with a horrendous voyage and the realization that John doesnt remember her, have Jessi fisting her hand and testing Mrs. Reillys secret weapon. With a wicked right cross, big John Reilly goes down like a stone. In Book 4 of C. H. Admirands Irish Western Series, the temporarily disbanded Committee for the Betterment of Emerson is at it again! This time they accuse Jessi Fahy of setting fire to Petersons Stable, injuring Mr. Peterson, brawling in public and ruining the good name of the Flahertys foreman, John Reilly. Other books in C.H.
