

THE TEMPLE OF THE WHITE FLAME: Fearless Adventurer in 1940s Far East

Exotic adventure in the pulp fiction genre set in the Far East, pre-WW2. A white explorer and his loyal native guide set out to find the White Flame... and a priceless statuette. The explorer -- who only survives due to the timely insertion of a female marksman -- and a local warlord who is determined to kill him dominate the plot. The action is graphic and fast-moving and was written by a successful author, mainly during the 1920s. By the end of his writing career, he could count 411 of his stories and yarns published. (1901-78) Enjoy!
