

Timbuktu

Paul Austerin yeni romaninin iki kahramani var; biri evsiz-barksiz, sarhos, yari-deli Willy, oburu de kendi insanligimiz konusunda ondan pek cok sey ogrenecegimiz bir kopek: Kemik Bey. Bir kopegin gozunden, onun dusuncelerine girerek dunyayi, yasami, insan iliskilerini isleyen Paul Auster, kimi yerde eglendirici, kimi yerde de trajik ve huzunlu bir anlatimla her zamanki dil ustaligiyla, sozcuklere yukledigi enerjiyle, yalin ama yogun yorumuyla bizi alisilmadik yollardan insanligimizla yuzuze getiriyor; yasamlarimizin, ilkelerimizin kimi zaman nasil da curuk ve dayaniksiz temellere oturdugunu kanitlarken, belleгимizin derinlerine gomdugumuz eski ve kalici degerleri, gunumuzun hizli ve acimasiz akisi icinde nasil da unuttugumuzu nostaljik yolculuklarla animsatiyor. Willy ile Kemik Beyin, yasamin son duragi olan Timbuktu'ya dogru ciktilari yolculugu, yasadan felsefesini yansitan bir izlek gibi kullanan Paul Auster, butun romanlarinda yaptigi gibi bu kitabina da katmis kendisini; dahasi, Willyde oldugu kadar, Kemik Beyde de ondan izler bulmak olasi. Yazar, bizi insan turunun cercevesi disina cikararak, kendimize yepyeni bir gozle bakmamizi sagliyor. Hangi konuda yazmayi secerse secsin, nasil bir masal uydurursa uydursun, buyusunu koruyor, bizi de o buyunun icine katiyor.
