

Single in the Superficial City (The Desert Chronicles)

Thirty-something Candace Davis knows she needs to get her life in order. Mr. Right remains illusive, her familys inheritance is gone, and an ill-advised work relationship sends her office to the end of the hall, next to the broom closet. All she wants to do is lead her idea of the perfect adult life. Unbeknownst to Candace, her former-socialite mother stops making mortgage payments on her home and loses it to foreclosure. And just when Candace thought things couldnt get any worst...Her mother moves in with her. Now Candace finds herself helping her mother with career re-training, job-hunting, and accepting the reality the familys money is gone all while suffering through daily criticism over her still-single status. As Candaces mother starts to get her life back together, Candaces life falls farther apart. Enter Erik Hansen, the companys handsome new asset manager, straight from a Wall Street firm. Hes new in town and available. Candace thinks shes found the answer to her relationship troubles in the handsome New York trader. As Candace starts to view Erik as the answer to her future, she uncovers that in life and in relationships not every perfectly wrapped package comes with a present.
