

Jump: The Fallen: Testament 1 (Volume 1)

Do you love thriller books? (JUMP) grabs you, shakes you, and spits you out ... leaving you wanting more. The State took almost everything Jake Blake ever cared about. Tonight, they want everything else. ** From bestselling Author Steve Windsor ** Seattle. One man is trapped on the roof of a tall scraper downtown. Six angry agents are threatening to remand him to Protection. Jake knows that means hell be tortured and killed. Every citizen knows that. Hiding and on the run for the past two years, for Jake, its the end of the lying. Now, theres only one easy way down off this scraper, and getting captured and killed isnt it. Welcome to a world where freedom means a person still has the power of choice. But most of those choices are between bad and worse. The citizens of the future have assured their security by giving up just about every freedom they ever had. And they also gave up the only means they ever had to resist. There are no more guns in Jake Blakes version of eternity, buried or otherwise. And if there are? If a citizen decides to dig one up? Well, they might find themselves trapped between the heaven of a quick and easy death and the hell of a long and torturous judgement. Because, as Jake likes to say to anyone who will listen to one of his rants, Sooner or later the boot finds its way to everyones neck. But tonight is citizen Jake Blakes sooner, and this time the neck under that boot is his. Revenge for the daughter they took. Right now, its about as tall an order as the top of this scraper. But depending on the last decision hell ever make as a man Jake doesnt know it yet, but the fate of this eternitythe one where hes standing on the ledge of a forty-eight story buildinghangs in the balance. In and out of reality and nightmare, in the end, Jake must find his own absolution. His own faith. But no matter what happens next, if he doesnt figure himself out, humanity has one day left.
