Literate Indians Or I can say people who live in metro cities. They have good schools for their children. Qualified teachers teach them. They have the internet, so world is here in their laptop. Friends are so close than the heart beat, through the whatsapp and messenger, Have 4 wheeler for going to the mall and wear the branded cloths. They drink distillery water when they roam outside or of aqua guard when they rest in home. Their favorite time pass to sit in McDonald or eat pizza or watch the all types of mans films like Spider man, batman, iron man, human or x-man which shows the same theory line like there is an attack on America that means attack on humanity. And they tell that Indian film industry should learn from these movies to make the good watchable movies. They are gentleman. They think and dont do anything more than that.
